

LEGALLY BLONDE the Musical Character Breakdown

Elle Woods (20-25): Elle is the protagonist of the show – a cheerful, energetic, and fashion-obsessed sorority girl who attends Harvard Law School to win back her ex-boyfriend, but ends up discovering her true potential. Her primary songs include "Omigod You Guys," "What You Want," "Positive," "So Much Better," "Legally Blonde," and "Find My Way."

Emmett Forrest (25-30): Emmett is a teaching assistant at Harvard Law School. He's intelligent, empathetic, modest, and becomes Elle's mentor and eventual love interest. His main songs include "Chip on My Shoulder," "Take It Like a Man," and "Legally Blonde."

Warner Huntington III (20-25): Warner is Elle's ex-boyfriend who enrolls at Harvard Law. He's handsome and privileged, but somewhat shallow, valuing status and image over substance. He's featured in "Serious," "Chip on My Shoulder," and "Legally Blonde Remix."

Vivienne Kensington (25-30): Vivienne is a serious, driven law student at Harvard and Warner's new girlfriend. She initially dislikes Elle, but they eventually develop mutual respect. She sings "Serious" and "Legally Blonde Remix."

Paulette Buonofuonte (35-45): Paulette is a warm-hearted, friendly, and slightly eccentric salon owner who becomes Elle's friend. Her main songs include "Ireland," "Bend and Snap," and "Legally Blonde Remix."

Professor Callahan (45-60): Callahan is a ruthless, prestigious law professor at Harvard who is more concerned with winning cases than with ethics. He sings in "Blood in the Water" and "There! Right There!"

Brooke Wyndham (25-35): Brooke is a wealthy fitness guru and Elle's client, who's accused of murder. She's tough, charismatic, and refuses to take the easy way out. She leads the ensemble in "Whipped into Shape."

Enid Hoopes (25-30): Enid is a feminist, activist, and fellow law student at Harvard. She's outspoken and highly intelligent, often standing up for what she believes in. She is featured in various group numbers.
